JULY 2023

MATTHEW FITZPATRICK, RANKED 9TH IN THE WORLD, CONFIRMS HIS PARTICIPATION

The talented British player, Matthew Fitzpatrick, will be showing off his impressive golf shots, much to the spectators' delight, at the Crans-sur-Sierre Golf Club course from August 31st to September 3rd.

He's come a long way since winning back-to-back titles at Crans-Montana in 2017 and 2018! Matthew Fitzpatrick already has 8 wins on the DP World Tour, including a prestigious victory at the US Open in June 2022. He also proved his consistency by finishing second in the Race to Dubai in 2020 and then fourth in 2021 and 2022.

This year, he decided to take the plunge and compete in the American PGA Tour, where he intends to continue improving his game. This decision has worked out well for him, as he has already claimed the RBC Heritage trophy in South Carolina last April, and currently sits in 9th place in the world rankings, the best ranking of his career so far. He will undoubtedly be one of the key players on the European Ryder Cup team next September in Rome.

The Omega European Masters is a tournament that holds a special place in his heart, and it was with his family that he celebrated his back-to-back wins.

This year, his schedule allows him to return after a three-year break and gives him a chance to become one of the few to have won the tournament in Crans-Montana. Only three players claimed three titles so far, among which the famous Seve Ballesteros.

Another added motivation will his 29th birthday celebration on the Friday of the tournament.
